Newport News Golf Club at Deer Run Tournament and Golf Outing Policy

General Information

- Reserving starting times for Club, Outings, or two-day Events will be the responsibility of the Head Golf Professional and /or his designee.
- The obligation of Newport News Golf Club is to provide reserved space on the golf courses for tournaments or groups and to do so in a professional manner.
- The obligation of the tournament or outing organizer is to secure their reservations with credit card (Visa or MasterCard) at least eight (8) days prior to the scheduled event.
- Also it is the tournament or outing organizer's obligation to present Newport News Golf Club with a list of participants, format and rules of play a minimum of three (3) days prior to the scheduled event to ensure proper preparations.
- The final scheduling of a tournament or outing will not be handled by telephone. Those individuals responsible for the event will be required to sign a formal agreement and it must be presented or faxed to the golf course.
- Only the Head Professional and/or his designee shall be responsible for arranging and formalizing all events at the golf course. Communication with persons other than the aforementioned is not in accordance with policy and may result in a failure to schedule and/or termination of an event.
- Please observe the dress code. Collared shirts or mock turtle necks are acceptable for men. Tee shirts are not allowed. Denims in good shape (no rips or tears) are permitted. For women, tank tops, tube tops or tops with spaghetti straps are not permitted. Soft spikes or tennis shoes are considered proper foot wear. Metal spikes are not allowed.

Shotgun Starts

- These events are based on food and beverage considerations, which require the event to begin and end at a scheduled time.
- The Newport News Golf Club staff will conduct Shotgun-start events when the event coordinator requests. This will include hole assignments, cart assignments, formats & rules information, special competitions, and scoring.
- 40-72 players will be considered for a 9-hole start.
- 100-144 players will be considered for an 18-hole start.
- 76-96 players will be considered for an 18-hole shotgun start only if the organization pays for 100 players.

Starting Time Procedures for the Public

- Starting times for the public are available one week before the requested day without credit card confirmation.
- Starting times for the public are available 60 days before the requested day by confirming the starting time with a credit card. There is a 48-hour cancellation policy.

Tournament Inclement Weather Policy

- The final decision to play or not is the responsibility of the golf professional. He may discuss the condition of the course with the golf course superintendent and one tournament official before making his decision.
- Should it be decided that the weather conditions are too severe to commence play, every effort will be made to reschedule the event to a date that is satisfactory to both the city and the tournament sponsor. If the date cannot be agreed upon, the sponsor will be refunded the total deposit.
- Should it be decided to discontinue play because of inclement weather conditions once the tournament has begun, players on the course shall have the right to complete their round. However, the tournament sponsor shall be responsible for the cost of playing said round or any portion thereof, in conformance with the following policy:
 1. If a player has hit his tee shot on the first hole and has not completed the ninth hole, the tournament shall be charged for the nine (9) holes for the players.
 2. If a player has hit his tee shot on the tenth hole, the tournaments shall be charged for eighteen (18) holes of play for the players.
 3. In the event a tournament is not rescheduled, all fees for partial and completed round will be deducted from the tournament sponsor's deposit.
 4. If the tournament is rescheduled and any rounds have to be replayed, cost for additional nine (9) and/or eighteen (18) hole rounds will be incurred by the tournament sponsor.
